

St Nicholas Parish Church, Lanark.

Church Hall Medical Evacuation Procedure

Responsibility to instigate this procedure is the Minister, Session Clerk or person in charge, as appropriate. Responsibility to telephone the emergency services will be delegated by the Minister, Session Clerk or person in charge, as appropriate.

Method:

Medically qualified people may be in attendance at the church hall. The Minister, Session Clerk or person in charge should direct such people to the casualty.

If the person is conscious, and thought appropriate, by the immediately available medically qualified people, the casualty may be evacuated to a separate room for further care.

If the person is unconscious, the casualty cared for, by the immediately available medically qualified people, pending arrival of ambulance service.

The nearest publically available defibulator is outside Blacks the butchers in the middle of the High Street, south side.
